FRANK L. ST. JOHN'S WILL

All to Relatives With Possible Reversion to L. I. College Hospital.

The will of Frank Lamar St. John, who t, leaves all his jewelry to his son, Frank and his household effects to his Abby A. St. John. He divided his sister. Abby A. St. John. He divided his residuary estate into three parts, one of which is left in trust for his wife. Fannie Babcock St. John of 81 Pierrepont street. Brooklyn, as long as she remains a widow. The reversion is to the son, Frank L. dr., who lives with his mother.

The second trust lund goes to the son, with the provision that he is to have $25,000 when he is 21, and another $25,000 at 30, and the remainder when he is 35. The testator's sister has the income of the third part and upon her death $50,000 is to go to the testator's brother Mortimer. If the beneficiaries die without issue the estate will go to the Long Island College Hospital.

DILLON RESIGNS FOR A DAY.

Denuty Police Commissioner Must Do Duty in Uniform to Hold Job. Fourth Deputy Police Commissioner dames E. Dillon will resign his position old duties as borough inspector of Brooklyn Lest the Commissioner's friends be alarmed, however, it may be said that on Tuesday morning he will be back at the Fourth Deputy's desk.

This situation is brought about by the exigencies of the civil service law, which provide that leave of absence may be granted for not more than a year to one whose position is governed by civil service. As Fourth Deputy Commissioner Mr. Dillon is not affected, but as he has been on leave of absence from the post of borough inspector he comes under the application of the law, and will don his old uniform and take up the old duties again for one day. Then back to Police Headquarters.

RECOUNT BAY STATE VOTES.

Taft Men Want to Know What Selberlich Cost Them.

Boston, May 3.—As was predicted Gov. Foss has released the delegates chosen on Tuesday from their pledges to vote for him for President. Mr. Foss issued the word to-day, but most of his delegates intended to vote for Champ Clark anyway. In the primaries, seven delegates at large and eight district delegates pledged to Foss were chosen. The other twenty-one delegates were either pledged to Clark or to the preference of the Democrats for the nomination.

erones of the Demourats for the nomination.

Gen. Champlin was back at the Taft League headquarters to-day, after a brief rest at Rye Beach. He said that petitions for a recount of the vote cast for delegates at large had been filed generally throughout the State. The league is determined at least to find out how many ballots were thrown out because of the Selberlich cadidacy.

Matthew Hale, chairman of the Roosevelt committee, has returned from Cyster Bay. Treasurer Ware said that there had been no change in the situation; that is, the Roosevelt delegates at large are still unwilling to comply with the Colonel's request to yote for Taft at Chicago.

Chicago.
The recounts will delay unt'l well into June the sesuing of certificates of election to the delegates.

MARKET MAN 60 YEARS; HIS FIRST VACATION

Louis Knoll Leaves His Shad and Turtles to See How Goes the West.

A little man with a gray mustache went he had been out of the city in sixty years. His father brought him over from Bremen Washington market.

Twelve years old he was then, and ever since he has been lifting the great shade, and lobsters and eels and queer big turtles over the counter, until now the firm has nine stalls in the new market building, a wholesale branch, wagons that are known to every policeman and small boy, and the old man has a fortune to take with him into the West. California up and down, the Yellowstone, the Western cities all will be visited. San Francisco is the first stop and the biggest back, half a day for each, ending of course with Indianapolis and Mayor Shank.

Yesterday at the market under the dim old sign of [Louis Knoll & Son the men were talking about it-Jacob Schey who tends the cash, and Philip Young outside. whose finger was recently bitten by a turtle, and the man who responds to "John, this lady wants a nice pair of roe and some filley," and he who presides over a lot of live and crawly things at the bottom of a deep dark bin. "Yessir, you have to get up at half past five to catch the old boss," said Young "He comes round here sometimes, mostly NEWS AGENCY IN SHORT PANTS.

Young Mr. Enterprise Visits "The Sun" With an Illustrated Piece.

The Bradley News and Photograph Agency came to The Sun office last night with a piece about the opening of an athletic field on the East Side.

The Bradley News and Photograph Agency wears short pants and a grin, but that doesn't affect its news any. It can't be much more than sixteen, though like all good newsgatherers it prefers when he left school and been there for thirty years.

"The only thing that drove father away was his rheumatism," the son said last night. "For the last six months it has bothered him; he could only go to the Fulton offices and had to come home early. The trip will do him good, but he'll be back by June 1, when he has his 73d birthday. I understand the marketmen will present him with a testimonial. It was too bad that mother was laid up and couldn't go along; they had talked if over for a great while. It was his one big disappointment."

LAW ON BRANDT ARGUED.

Appeal From Gerard's Habeas Corpus Ruling Is Heard.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court heard argument yesterday reserved decision on the appeal from Supreme Court Justice Gerard's order sustaining the writ of habeas corpus for Foulke E. Brandt and admitting him to oail pending a new trial. District Attorney Hogue of Clinton county, in which Dannemora is situated, District Attorney Whitman and Attorney-General Carmody argued against the writ, and Mirabeau L. Towns defended Justice Gerard' ruling Brandt's writ had been sustained by Justice Gerard on the ground that efter he had pleaded guilty the court found by examining the defendant that his plea of guilty was erroneous, and for that reason had no jurisdiction to sentence Brandt on an indictment for burglary in the first degree. Attorney-General Carmody argued yesterday that "the law is firmly established that, jurisdiction once being obtained over the person morning he will be back at the Fourth and the subject matter, no error or irregusarity in its exercise will make the judgment void."

Mr. Carmody argued that Brandt's only remedy, if error was committed. Old Wound Bothers Him No More. was by appeal, by Executive clemency or by a writ of coram vobis. He contended that to permit an inquiry into a judgment of conviction under a writ of habeas corpus would in effect turn the

CALLED TO HARLEM CHURCH.

The Rev. Dr. R. B. Clark of Port Jervis to Be Puritan's Pastor. The Rev. Dr. Robert Bruce Clark of Port Jervis has been called to the pastorate of Puritan Presbyterian Church, Harlem. The church has been without a pastor since the death of the Rev. Dr. C. J. Young. It was said yesterday that Dr. Clark would accept, subject to the usual approval of the New York Presbytery. The congregation named to prosecute the call George M. Jacques, Arthur D. Crane and James McCullob.

The new Puritan pastor was born in Newark in 1852 and was educated in the public schools of Brooklyn. He was graduated from Amherst College in 1878 and then attended Union Theological Seminary in this city. He was a pastor in the West, chiefly in Iowa, for a decade or more, but has been in Orange county, this state, at Goshen and Port Jervis, for upward of twenty years. Puritan church dates from 1872 and its membership is about 500.
